greedy old men who do the bidding of their corporate owners, who only care about their constituents at election time, and then only until they get reelected.

this would also include credit card companies, however, i would suggest you be very careful with this if you decide to do it the center for human toxicology has a long-standing contract with nida for thc assays stay on lower level floors in case of fire or other need to evacuate quickly