if there is no medical cause, strictly behavioral treatments can be pursued.

aural (tympanic) thermometers may measure the temperature as higher.

we have major concerns about the introduction of category three of this guidance.