taken daily, they block the effects of a chemical called leukotriene that contributes to nasal allergy symptoms